John Abrams and Travis Greiman presented a water project Engineers Without Borders (EWB) is developing in Antoinparihy, Madagascar. The project is installing water wells in the town. This town has about 1,800+ residents. The town has no clean water, no electricity, and no latrines. EWB has installed 6 wells in a neighboring town. EWB is teaming with a Rotary club in Manakara.

Madagascar is a country where 90 percent of the species are endemic. Deforestation has occurred on the island and has removed 40+ percent of the trees. This is due to grazing and wood for fire wood. The country is the 6th poorest country in the world.

Our new member Sophia Decolati introduced the Student of the Month, Nate Anderson. Nate has a 4.14 average and is a member of the National Honor Society. He is going to BYU next year. He is an Eagle Scout, unified basketball, church youth group. He is also a member of AHS cross-country team. He enjoys music, played a part in Bye, Bye Birdie. He also enjoys cooking.

Kelly Fenson-Hood and Steve DeMars present a project from the Boulder New Gen Rotary Club. The project is called Power of Soap. This project will provide the ability for ladies in the Kibera slum in Nairobi, Kenya to produce soap in the slum. One fifth of the children in the world die from diarrheal disease. This project will provide soap to this slum so there would be about a 40 percent reduction in diarrheal deaths.

Katherine Henschen did the Rotary Minute. She presented notable individuals who are or have been Rotarians. Some of the notables include Buss Aldrin, Neil Armstrong, Frank Borman, Jimmy Carter, Winston Churchill, Hillary Clinton, Calvin Coolidge, Walt Disney, and Pope Francis when he was a Cardinal in Argentina.

Bill Kirton presented the Paul Harris Hat.

Lisa Bush from the Littleton Rotary club announced a networking happy hour for Rotarians on the 2nd Wednesday of each month. The happy hour is 5:30 to 7:30 PM at the Boardroom Sports Bar in Littleton, at 51 W. Dry Creek Court.
