

Rotary Club of Centennial Colorado

Centennial, Colorado

July 12, 2016

Nicolle Davies is shown receiving her President's pin from the outgoing President, Randy Pye.

Nicolle holds a Masters in Library and Information Science from the University of Wisconsin. She also holds a Masters Degree in Public Administration and a Bachelor of Science Degree in Journalism from the University of Colorado.

Nicolle Davies serves as the Executive Director for Arapahoe Libraries, a public library system serving the residents of Arapahoe County, Colorado. ALD has a $30M annual operating budget, nearly 300 employees, eight branches, a bookmobile, outreach services and a jail location.

Prior to serving as the Executive Director, Nicolie held the job a Deputy Executive Director. In addition, during her time at Arapahoe Libraries, Nicolie has had oversight of the Arapahoe Library Friends Foundation and the Communications Department. Preceding her work at Arapahoe Libraries, Nicolie served as Vice President of Galloway Group, a Public Relations/Community Relations firm in Denver. Nicolie began her career in television in New York as a Production Assistant on Sunrise and the Today Show. Nicolie also worked as a News Producer for KUSA (Denver) and WTSP (Tampa) television stations. Oh, also, Nicolie was

LIBRARIAN OF THE YEAR!

The RI theme for the 16-17 year is Rotary Serving Humanity.

In starting her new year, Nicolie asks members to state why they became a Rotarian. The members who responded all had different reasons for joining. She presented a video that can be seen at <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=rhXp8ZGkfwk>. It is worth taking time to watch this video on the Rotary Foundation. Nicolie explained as her leadership style as collaborative, inclusive, and know what you do not know. This is your club—make the most of it.

She advised us to dream to reconnect with what inspires you. Find your passion. Let Centennial Rotary help. Dream big, do good.

Jeanne Henschen reminded us that peach time is fast approaching.

Katherine Henschen gave us an update on AloSource. They are working on a project of providing baskets to refugees.

Roxy reminded us the Ready, Set, School is coming up.

Diane had a travel gift—a water bottle from Roswell, NM

Don Shattuck has responsibility for the inspiration and completely forgot it. Nicolie recovered nicely and we had a moment of silent prayer for the tragedy in Dallas this past week.
