

Rotary Club of Centennial Colorado

Centennial, Colorado

May 1, 2018

Tuesday was Barb's last day of work. As a special appreciation, the money raised by Happy Bucks was given to her as a going away gift. Here is John giving her the money.

Mark Hardcastle was our speaker and he was talking about Changing the World Through the Next Generation.

Mark talked about what to do to get harmony in your self when things get out of kilter. Several years ago he went mountain biking in Moab, UT with several friends. They were more experienced than him and he fell behind. As he crossed a road he had a severe bike accident that left him with a broken neck. He thought what do I do know.

Mark is a Captain with United Air Lines and flies 737s. He worked at United when they merged with Continental Air Lines. United wanted to take the best of both air lines and merge those characteristics. Finally, according to Mark, the combined air line is starting to see the results as far as the pilots are concerned.

He talked about what is the vision for your tribe? Tribe meaning what you want it to be. What is it that you want to be your lasting legacy? Can you put into a single word what you want your legacy to be? It might be your single most important lesson.

Mentors show us how we can be. Mentors convey experience that we can grow from. Mentors can help us fight through life battles and end up winning.

Mark said the most important thing to take away from his talk is what do you bring to life that no one else can bring.

Mark Gaarfinkle drew the blue marble for Diana Zing. Diana needs to get a better person to draw the blue marble. The elusive blue marble stayed elusive. The prize next week is over $1,000.

CLUB BUSINESS

- J Berry started off the meeting by reading a list of members that have 17 year Rotary anniversaries this month. A long, long list. Ends up, the club was chartered on May 10, 17 years ago.
- Changing of the Guard will be June 23 at B Medina's house.
- R Hahn said volunteers are needed to put together the Blessing Bags.

- Eric brought a flag from a club he visited this past week in Nigeria. The Nigeria club would like to partner with our club on projects.
- Sheriff Dave announced there is a Shred-A-Thon at his office on the morning of May 12. This is not a club activity.

TRAVEL GIFTS

- Eric brought back 2 dresses that were hand made in Nigeria by his host and 2 table settings, also made by his host.
